

WV Board of Osteopathic Medicine Seeks Executive Director

With the retirement of its current Executive Director, the Board is seeking a highly self-motivated individual who has excellent communication and leadership skills.

Minimum Requirements: Bachelor's Degree with management experience in licensing/credentialing, healthcare law or other health related field. Good organizational skills, ability to deal with board members, board staff, licensees, media and the general public.

Submit resume with three references to:

West Virginia Board of Osteopathic Medicine
405 Capitol Street, Suite 402
Charleston, WV 25301